A Word from the Mayor

Welcome to the winter edition of the City Chronicle.

One of the highlights of the end of our long, long summer was a visit from the Ako Children's Choir, culminating in a delightful performance at the foreshore. It's always a pleasure to welcome our friends from our sister city in Japan to our own beautiful City and to see the interaction with our local schools.

Now that the weather is changing we are getting into storm season, and the potential for damaging winds and rain. If you haven't already prepared, there are some tips on preparing a storm plan on page 14.

The City's first Changing Place has been finished, the neighbourhood-level pump-and-jump track at June Road reserve is expected to be completed soon, and work is underway on upgrading the Mike Barnett Sports Complex.

If you appreciate art, you must come along to the City of Rockingham Art Prize exhibition at the Rockingham Arts Centre from 15 June to 30 June. It will feature work from Western Australian artists in a variety of mediums, including 2D, sculpture and photography. If you are a community group in need of some helping hands, the City runs a Corporate Volunteer Program in which City staff volunteer to roll up their sleeves and help out on eligible projects. Find out more on page 7.

And finally, a reminder that the City's free LitterBusters app is available in the App Store and Play Store, so if you haven't got it on your phone yet, grab it and start reporting any litter or graffiti that you see around our community.

Please enjoy this edition of the Chronicle.

Deb Hamblin

Changing Place Complete

The City's first Changing Place facility has been completed. Located in Churchill Park at the Rockingham Beach Foreshore, this much-needed facility meets the needs of people who require a bathroom with additional accessibility features. It includes a height-adjustable adult-sized change table, a ceiling track hoist system, shower, toilet and additional circulation space for people with complex disability. A Master Locksmiths Access Key (MLAK) is required to enter the facility. Most people who need to use a Changing Place will have their own MLAK key but if you need to loan one, please contact the City.

The Changing Place is a key element of the access and inclusion upgrades at the foreshore designed to help more people enjoy this beautiful part of our City.

Safety Bay Pump and Jump Track

Design of the Safety Bay Pump and Jump Track has now been finalised. Works started on the neighbourhood level track at June Road Reserve in Safety Bay in mid-May, and are expected to be complete by early July.

There are two riding lines on the track: a lower line that works as a pump track, and the jumps line that includes four jumps, up to 1.6 m high.

This final design has incorporated the feedback from local youth, gained through various engagement opportunities, including in-person workshops with the design and construction contractor.

Keep up to date on this project by visiting rockingham.wa.gov.au/pumpandjumptrack

Mike Barnett Sports Complex Upgrade

As anyone north of 40 knows, there's nothing like a bit of TLC to make you feel good about yourself. After turning the big Four-Oh last year, the Mike Barnett Sports Complex in Rockingham is now getting some much-needed attention, particularly on the original part the building.

The exterior is being repainted entirely, internal wall panelling has been added to courts 4 – 7, some really big fans have been installed on the ceilings and walls, and modifications are being made to the roof to allow better airflow, reducing the overall temperature inside the building. A range of other minor refurbishments will also be undertaken.

The Complex is one of the City's leading leisure facilities and is used by thousands of people, as well as a variety of user groups every year.

Around Our Community

Harmony of Friendship

This year, the City of Rockingham was delighted to celebrate 27 years of friendship with our sister city, Ako, in Japan, marked by a visit from the Ako Children's Choir. The highlight of their trip was a "Harmony of Friendship" performance at Rockingham Beach Foreshore where they were joined by over 100 local school students to perform a combination of Australian and Japanese songs in front of family, friends and the local community. It was a great event and a wonderful demonstration of the cultural and social benefits of our sister city relationship with Ako.

Ahoy There Sailor Jack

Rockingham Naval Memorial Park has a new resident, with thanks to the Australian Sailor Pty Ltd.

Sailor Jack, a 3.6 metre-high bronze statue by award-winning artists Charles Smith and Joan Walsh-Smith, pays homage to all Australian sailors. Jack is being installed in his new foreshore location and is expected to be complete by early July. Come on down and say ahoy!

East Rockingham Pioneer Cemetery

Following recent changes endorsed by Council, burials and the interment of ashes at the East Rockingham Pioneer Cemetery are now only allowed for people with a valid Grant of Right of Burial. The Grant applies to only those named on the Grant and does not extend to relatives. If you think you might be affected by these changes or would like further information, visit rockingham.wa.gov.au/cemetery

Green Award – Nominate Now

Are you a local community group, business, school or individual who has been involved in an innovative waste reduction project? We are looking to recognise local action with our first-ever Green Award. If you've completed a project in the 2023/2024 financial year focused on eliminating waste and improving sustainable practices, we want to hear all about it. Search 'Green Award' on the City's website for all the details.

Submissions close 5pm Monday 12 August 2024.

Turn the Tide on Plastics

We have plenty on in July to get you started on your sustainable living journey. Focusing on waste reduction activities, come along to one of our library workshops on making beeswax wraps, seed bombs, hear tips on living plastic free and much more. Find out more by searching 'Turn the Tide on Plastic' on our website.

Winter Sprinkler Switch-off

Reminder – the Winter Sprinkler Switch-off is from 1 June to 31 August for all residents in Perth, Peel and parts of the South-West and Great Southern. Your irrigation (both scheme and bore water) can take a break while your garden captures the winter rain.

Re-usable Nappies Workshops

Babies are messy, and they get a free pass on that (because they are just so cute). But your recyclables shouldn't be. If they are contaminated with dirty items they can't be recycled and all those potentially re-usable materials are wasted forever.

Single-use nappies are one of the main contaminants in yellow-lidded recycle bins. They can't be recycled, and they pose a health risk to people working in the recycling facility.

Re-usable nappies are much better for our environment, so the City of Rockingham is offering four re-usable nappies workshops for our residents in June and July 2024. Be part of positive change. Come to a workshop and take home a fantastic re-usable nappy starter pack. Find out more on the What's On Calendar on the City's website.

E-waste to Landfill Ban in WA

An e-waste ban to landfill for businesses will commence in Western Australia from 1 July 2024. E-waste is one of the fastest growing waste streams in WA, so this is an opportunity to ensure e-waste is recycled and doesn't end up in landfill.

By increasing the circular economy in WA, we can reduce the health and environmental risks posed by hazardous materials in e-waste when they aren't disposed of properly, and also recover materials that are often high in value.

Banned items will include:

- batteries, including lead acid batteries
- TVs, computers, laptops, IT accessories
- mobile phones, pagers
- light globes
- large household appliances, large battery-powered toys and exercise equipment
- fridges, freezers, air conditioners
- professional medical devices

Visit rockingham.wa.gov.au/hazardouswaste for more information on e-waste disposal in the City of Rockingham or find your nearest drop-off point at recycleright.wa.gov.au/find-my-nearest

Caring for Our Little Penguins

The little penguins are a unique feature of Rockingham's coastline. With the population on Penguin Island being affected by the impacts of climate change, there are things we can all do to help.

Respect their breeding season.

Please note that the island is closed during the winter to protect the penguins from human disturbance during their breeding season.

Don't speed.

Maintain responsible boat speed – the speed limit in the Restricted Zone is 8 knots.

Say no to overfishing.

Overfishing can pose a threat to the penguin population, so please be aware of fishing restrictions in marine park zones.

LitterBusters

If you've spotted some litter or graffiti on City-owned land or facilities, contact our LitterBusters team to sweep in and clean it up.

Use the LitterBusters app (available on the App Store and Play Store) or call 1800 4 LITTER (1800 454 883) to make your report. The team is out and about every day helping to keep our City clean.

1000 Hearts Project

We need your help to change the world, one heart at a time this World Suicide Prevention Day. Join us and be part of the 1000 Hearts kindness project.

Each year the City works in collaboration with the Peel, Rockingham and Kwinana Suicide Prevention Collaborative to highlight World Suicide Prevention Day and the support available in the community for individuals and families.

This year the Collaborative will mark the event with a community forum on Saturday 7 September at Gary Holland Community Centre to provide the opportunity to connect, hear about services available and chat about prevention in our community.

Care packs, including messages of hope and handmade felt hearts, will be distributed as part of the event. If your group would like the opportunity to create hearts and notes for these packs in the lead up to the event, we would love to hear from you.

Register your organisation for a 1000 Hearts kit via customer@rockingham.wa.gov.au

Emergency Preparedness

Are You Storm Ready?

Prepare your storm plan now, because it's better to have it and not need it, than need it and not have it:

- Check your emergency kit, replace any expired items and make sure everyone in the household knows where it is kept.
- What outdoor items need to be stored away or secured?
- If you need to leave for a safer place, when will you leave and where will you go?
- Who will turn off the electricity, gas and water? Do they know how?
- Where will your pets and animals shelter? When would you relocate them?

New Compliance Date for the 2024/2025 Fire Control Notice

In response to the prolonged dry periods we're experiencing and to further reduce the risk of bushfire in our community, we are trialling a change to the Fire Control Notice compliance period for the 2024/2025 bushfire season. Properties will now need to be maintained from 1 November 2024 to 31 May 2025 (previously the annual compliance period was 1 December to 31 May).

Fire Control Notices are issued annually in July to all property owners.

For further information, contact the City's Fire Control Officer on 9528 0333 or visit rockingham.wa.gov.au/firecontrol

The City of Rockingham is offering owners/occupiers of rural properties the opportunity to opt-in to a free text messaging service to receive information about Total Fire Bans, Harvest and Vehicle Movement Bans and Permits to Burn.

The SMS service will assist residents living on rural properties to stay informed about fire prevention notifications affecting the Rockingham community.

To sign-up for the SMS alert service, go to rockingham.wa.gov.au/firecontrol

The SMS service will not be used for emergency messaging. Residents are reminded to visit emergency.wa.gov.au for current alerts and warnings.

Is Your Dog Scared of Thunder?

Thunderstorm anxiety is one of the most common fears in animals. Dogs often run away when they are frightened by thunderstorms which can result in them getting lost or even injured.

Our Ranger Services respond to an increase in reports of dogs that have escaped the yard during a winter storm due to damaged or defective fencing.

Remember to keep your property well maintained during the year and ensure your fencing is secure.

Don't forget to make sure your pet is microchipped and wearing their identification tag so you can be reunited if they escape.
