Conditions of Entry

- Entry to the City of Rockingham Short Fiction Awards is free
- Entered stories must be inspired by, drawn upon, or use the theme of the artwork upon this entry form – "Two Children at Beach" by Delon Govender (2003)
- Work to be original, unpublished, not have received an award in another competition, and not be under consideration elsewhere from the time of entry in awards until official announcement of winners
- Entries must be no shorter than 1000 and no longer than 4000 words. Any stories outside these word lengths will be deemed ineligible and removed from judging
- Limit of three stories per author. Individual works cannot be entered in more than one category
- Emailed entries to be attached in .rtf or .doc format, and be accompanied by a completed, scanned copy of the entry form
- Entries to be type-written, double-spaced on one side only of A4-size white paper, with pages numbered, a wide left-hand margin, and story title on each page. Posted entries to be posted in an A4 envelope
- To ensure anonymity no writers' names to appear on manuscript. All entries must be accompanied by a completed and signed Entry Form
- All manuscripts will be destroyed after the competition. Do not send original copies
- Award winners will be notified by phone or mail prior to announcement
- Winners will be announced via the Arts page of the City of Rockingham website
- Employees of the City of Rockingham and their family members are ineligible to enter
- The judges' decisions are final, and no correspondence will be entered into. Any attempt to lobby judges or City of Rockingham employees, or influence decisions, may result in disqualification
