

Guidelines for Itinerant Food Traders

Ice Cream Vehicles

Ice cream vehicles are granted a specialised permit (Traders Permit – Itinerant Food Traders) which allows them to trade on roads, for as long as it reasonably takes to serve the customers.

Ice cream vehicle traders need to ensure:

- They do not trade within 300m of an established food business or Fixed Food Trader Permit Holder that sells a similar product;
- They only operate between 7am and 7pm each day;
- The music is maintained at a level that does not create a nuisance; and
- They do not park the vehicle longer than the time needed to serve their customers.
- Do not to trade on the following roads:-
 - Ennis Avenue
 - Read Street
 - Rae Road
 - Warnbro Sound Avenue
 - Port Kennedy Drive
 - Mandurah Road
 - Baldivis Road
 - Safety Bay Road
 - Patterson Road

Ice cream vehicles must sell ice cream, and are permitted to also sell snow cones, slushies and confectionary.

If an operator has an annual Traders Permit for an Ice Cream vehicle, and wishes to attend an Event as a stallholder (stationary stall for the duration of the event), they are not charged additional application fees from the City. These fees are deemed to be included in the annual Traders Permit charge. However, the operator must still have permission from the Event Organiser to attend the event.

Food Vehicles Servicing Construction Sites/Commercial Sites

Food vehicles such as coffee trucks, sandwich trucks etc. are permitted to attend construction sites and commercial sites to serve staff on-site without a Traders Permit from the City, as it is trading on private land.

Even though a Traders Permit is not required, food vehicles servicing these sites are to ensure:

- They do not attend sites within 300m of an established food business or Fixed Food Trader Permit Holder that sells a similar product;
- Trading is limited to servicing building sites, commercial and industrial premises only.
- Trading is prohibited in the road reserve.
- They only attend sites by prior arrangement with the consent of the site supervisor/manager;
- They only sell pre-packaged food, however, coffee and other drinks can be prepared to order; Food preparation and cooking cannot be undertaken on-site;
- They do not park the vehicle longer than the time needed to serve their customers
- They have a Certificate of Registration displayed from the local government where the vehicle is housed overnight.

Trading on private land outside of these requirements needs to be discussed further with both the City's Planning Services and Health Services. Applicants wishing to undertake extended trading on private land should arrange for a joint meeting with the City's Planning and Health teams to discuss their proposal at their earliest convenience and prior to making a vehicle purchase.

Food Act Registration

All food premises where food is prepared for sale, stored or sold require a Certificate of Registration under the Food Act 2008. This also extends to food vehicles and food stalls, as well as any other location that food is prepared or stored for sale (such as a home business).

The Certificate of Registration is issued by the local government where the food vehicle/food stall is housed overnight. In considering an application for a Certificate of Registration, the local government Environmental Health Officer will assess the suitability of the location for the food preparation being undertaken.

Please note that high risk food preparation cannot be approved at home. Please also note that if food is being prepared within a commercial kitchen then approval needs to be sought from that local government to then sell off-site.

The Certificate of Registration must be included in the Permit application. Only approved foods can be sold. Any additional products not already approved will need approval from the local government that issued the Certificate of Registration before a Permit application is made.

The City's Permits Officer checks with the local government that issued the Certificate of Registration to confirm validity and the approved foods, prior to approving a traders permit.

Food Act Compliance

The City's Environmental Health Officers undertake unscheduled inspections of food premises, food vehicles and food stalls. It is important to inspect food retailers to ensure food is being prepared safely and in accordance with the food legislation.

Food retailers, their staff and volunteers must be familiar with the requirements under the Food Act 2008 and the subsidiary legislation to ensure they are complying at all times. Particular attention should be paid to ensure food is maintained at the correct temperature at all times, that the food vehicle/food stall is clean and protected from dust, dirt, pests and accumulations of grease and grime, and that food handlers are washing their hands before handling food and after handling money.

The City has free online food handler training available on the City's website at Food businesses - City of Rockingham. The free food handler training is detailed under 'I'm Alert Food Safety'. All food handlers are highly encouraged to undertake this quick training course to ensure they have a basic understanding of food safety.

Breaches of the Food Act 2008 can result in an infringement being issued, a direction being issued to dispose of dangerous food or to cease trading, or future applications to trade within the City of Rockingham being denied. If a non-compliant food vehicle/food stall is registered outside of the City of Rockingham, the City's Environmental Health Officers will contact that local government for further follow up.

The City's Environmental Health Officers want to see successful and safe food retailers operating within the City, and are happy to be contacted for advice or any food safety questions on 9528 0315.
