Hot and need help getting to the library?

Libraries aren't just cool during a heatwave

If required by the community, the City will activate a special bus service to run local residents from their home to the Mary Davies Library.

The service is subject to availability and will be activated when a heatwave is declared between 1 January and 30 March 2026.

This pilot is a new initiative to ensure residents remain safe and well in periods of high heat. Concession required. Conditions apply.

For heatwave advice, visit rockingham.wa.gov.au/heatwave

Heatwave warnings are issued by EmergencyWA. Download the EmergencyWA App to stay informed.
