Note 1 The extent of proposed future land uses and/or planning areas are indicative only and intended as a guide for future planning.

Note 2 Relevant areas may be subject to additional planning actions and/or detailed planning processes - such as structure plans (precinct or standard) and local development plans in determining appropriate development controls such as building heights, densities and built form provisions.

Note 3 Existing Urban Footprint relates to all existing built up areas, this includes a mixture of residential, community purpose, and public open space sites. Detailed locations for these sites are show in Part 2.
