As a director of an accounting firm, I have been listening to the needs of local business and community members for the last 28 years, as such, I am in a strong position to provide quality representation on council. I have extensive strategic planning and board experience, currently holding positions of Chairman - Variety WA, Vice President - The Peel Thunder Football Club, Life Member - Rockingham Kwinana Chamber of Commerce, Director - Rockingham Community Bank and member of the Rockingham Beach Cup Committee. I run with no agenda other than to see our community prosper through sustainable economic development and greater community investment, I trust that my track record speaks for itself, all of my work to date has been to make Rockingham a better place to live and work. Being elected to council is an opportunity for me to make a greater difference. If elected, you have my undertaking that I will represent the people of Rockingham with nothing but integrity and honesty.
