

Mark Jones was elected as a Councillor for the City of Rockingham in 2017 (6 years ago) and has actively served on the following committees:

- Planning & Engineering Services
- Corporate & Community Services
- City Safe
- Sports Advisory
- Disability Access and Inclusion Committee

External committees / boards

- Australian Coastal Councils Association (currently deputy Chairperson)
- Peron Naturaliste Partnership (currently Chairperson) the group represents the 9 local governments along the coast and estuary between Rockingham and Busselton providing a regional approach and adaption measures to coastal erosion and other impacts of climate change.
- Member of the Metro Outer Joint Development Assessment Panel
- Rockingham Regional Park Community Advisory Committee
- Secret Harbour Primary School Board
- Seaside Camp for Children Board (currently Secretary)

Work History

Planning Assistant - Town of Cottesloe

Planning Officer - City of Kwinana

Principal Town Planner - Shire of Dardanup

Manager Planning & Development Services - Shire of Murray

Town Planning Consultant

Executive Minister - Warnbro Community Church

Development Planning Coordinator - Rottnest Island Authority

Senior Planner, Strategic Land Use Planning - City of Mandurah

Qualifications

Bachelor Arts Urban & Regional Studies

Graduate Diploma in Urban & Regional Planning

Graduate Diploma in Theology

Advanced Management Program (UWA & AIM)