I live in Secret Harbour with my partner and two Havanese fur babies. We were attracted to the area for its lifestyle and proximity to the ocean. I am determined to ensure that the quality of our public realm is maintained and improved with ongoing financial sustainability. I have spent most of my working life as a broadcast journalist in media (TV, Radio and online) and have worked closely across all three levels of government. Before retiring, I worked with both State and Federal Governments and consulted to a number of local government bodies. I am passionately committed to ensuring honesty and transparency in an environment of open and accountable government. I've been described as being a confident, forward-thinking, articulate communicator with a proven record in management as a strategic thinker and collaborator. I am driven by performance, service delivery and continuous improvement. I stand by what I say and do and integrity and honesty are the cornerstones of all my dealings.
